

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REGISTERING A LITTER WITH THE ASDCA

1. Print or type all requested information on the LITTER RECORD. Please ensure all information is clear & legible. Any forms not clear & legible will be returned unprocessed.
2. If the litter is a result of artificial insemination, please also complete and forward the "ASDCA Supplemental Litter Registration for Litter Resulting from Artificial Insemination Form" along with a copy of the AKC DNA profile for the stud dog.
3. Follow the NAMING GUIDELINES on the reverse side of these instructions.
4. A litter of puppies born to ASDCA and/or AKC registered sire and dam, can be registered with the ASDCA. If either sire or dam are not ASDCA registered, then an AKC Certified Pedigree must be provided.
5. Because duplication of names is possible, the breeder's last name will precede the name of each puppy unless the breeder has a registered kennel name. NOTICE: Registered kennel names may not be used in the puppy's registered name except by the breeder who has registered that name or with written permission of that breeder.
6. If you are not the registered owner of the bitch, the registered owner of the bitch must provide the registrar, in writing, authorization to register the litter. If the sire or dam of the litter has been leased, a copy of the lease agreement must accompany the litter record.
7. If a puppy is to be registered under a co-ownership, a written statement acknowledging that a co-ownership agreement exists must accompany the litter application and the statement signed and dated by all parties of the co-ownership.
8. Make sure the litter application contains the proper signatures of the registered owners of both the sire and dam (and co-owners). REGISTRATIONS WILL NOT BE PROCESSED WITHOUT PROPER SIGNATURES ON THE LITTER RECORD APPLICATION.
9. PUPPIES SOLD WITH NO PAPERS. If you have a sold a puppy "WITHOUT PAPERS", the ASDCA still needs to know where that puppy resides and who "owns" the puppy. List any puppies sold "without papers" on the Litter Record form including the name of dog, description, and complete information on the owners. In the last column, write "NO PAPERS". There is NO CHARGE for listing these puppies.
10. PUPPIES SOLD WITH "LIMITED REGISTRATION": If you have sold a puppy with a "LIMITED REGISTRATION" (i.e. no breeding rights), write "LIMITED REGISTRATION" in the last column. The registration fee is the same as a puppy with full registration.
